

GDPR statement

EMH Enterprises does not store personal data for any reason other than for invoicing purposes. No data is purchased or sold on to third parties, your data, ie Name, Address telephone number and email address are purely saved to carry out invoicing of any work carried out. Your details will never be used for advertising purposes etc, any feedback left for work carried out will only have a name attached and possibly a date, this is only to prove that the feedback given is indeed genuine,.